Wild Alaska Marinade 2016 Rules & Regulations

You're signing up to enter the Wild Alaska Marinade Contest at the 2016 Juneau Maritime Festival on Saturday, May 7 2016 at downtown Juneau's Marine Park & Plaza.

WHAT: Participants create a salmon marinade and drop it off between 11:00AM – 1:30 PM on Festival day at the grilling tent, where contest volunteers will prepare and grill the fish. A panel of judges will select one salmon marinade as Juneau's Best Marinade 2016.

WHERE: All marinating and grilling takes place at the Juneau Maritime Festival in Marine Park & Plaza on Festival day.

WHEN: Marinade drop-off is between 11:00AM – 1:30 PM on Festival day. Grilling and judging will take place between 2:00PM to 3:30 PM.

WINNER: In addition to the honor and local celebrity, the winner will receive a special prize from one of the festival sponsors.

Your Responsibilities on Festival Day:

Bring approximately One Quart of marinade in a clearly labeled container with a locking lid, between 11:00AM – 1:30 PM, to the Marine Park grilling tent on Saturday, May 7th.

You will be asked to sign in and review your ingredient list before 1:30PM that day. You are not obligated to be present once your sign-in is complete. Since questions may arise, we encourage you to include the best means of contacting you on Festival day on the registration form.

Other Important Information

We will contact you to confirm that your registration has been accepted. Since there are a limited number of entries, we may not be able to accept them all. You will be notified by the organizers of the status of your entry prior to Festival day. Decisions by the "Esteemed Panel of Judges" are final.
